PEOPLE SKILLS...

Your educators, that is, your parents and teachers and eventually your employers, are encouraging you to learn different skills. Maths, English, Music, Art and Sport etc. are wonderful skills to learn but sometimes we can overlook or fail to recognise "People Skills".

All our life we will deal with different people from our family, our school life from prep to high school, sporting clubs and employment, so it is important that we become aware of people skills. We are not all blessed with wonderful personalities but here are definitely people skills that we can acquire.
